

Application for Residency-Only Participation
Whidbey Writers Workshop
Continuing Education Program

Please fill out this form in print or ink and mail to:
Whidbey Writers Workshop/ MFA Program
PO Box 1289
Langley, WA 98260

Include the following:

1. Two typewritten copies and one electronic copy of a manuscript of your original work, no more than twenty pages in length. Send work only for the genre in which you plan to focus (Fiction, Poetry, Nonfiction or Writing for Children/Young Adults.) Fiction candidates may send short stories or chapters; nonfiction candidates may send short pieces or chapters of longer works. Please double space prose and single space poetry (one poem per page.) Electronic copy may be send as an attachment to an email to: writers@whidbey.com
2. A one-page letter introducing you and your writing: topics, themes, strengths and weaknesses, publications, writing conference attended, or anything else you feel will help introduce you and your writing.

Name: _____

Address: _____

E-mail: _____

Telephone: _____

Applying for Residency Offered: August, _____ or January, _____
(year) (year)

Check genre in which you wish to focus:

Fiction Poetry Nonfiction Writing for Children and Young Adults

Where or how did you first hear of the our program? _____

Length of residency preferred (see Residency Schedule www.writeonwhidbey.org/mfa)

5-days (first 5 days of residency) $450 fee, due upon acceptance, does not include room board or travel

9-days (full residency) $800 fee, due upon acceptance, does not include room, board or travel